

Academic talk locations
(see details overleaf)

Key

- Academic
- Social and Sport
- Accommodation
- P4 Car park
- ♿ Accessible car parking
- Steps, not accessible
- Rough path may not be accessible
- ⊖ Bus stop
- ♿ Pedestrian crossing
- ☕ Café
- 🛒 Shop
- 📖 Library
- £ Cash point
- WC Gender neutral toilets
- ♿ Disabled toilets
- ♂♀ Toilets male and female
- R Registration
- T Campus tours
- T Accommodation tours (Founder's Building, Dining Hall for 360 virtual tour and halls north of campus; The Hub for halls south of campus)
- A Advice zone
- I Information point

Fancy a bite to eat?

A number of our cafés are open today, so feel free to stop by for some lunch or a snack.

Boilerhouse Café

Coffee shop with strong vegetarian and vegan influences.

Open 9am-4pm

Food vans

Pick up a treat like some ice-cream or freshly made crepes at one of the food vans at Founder's Square.

Open 10am-3pm

Crosslands

Crosslands is located in the heart of the Founder's Building and operates a table service for customers to eat in throughout the day as well as a take away service.

Open 10am-4pm

Café on the Square

Located in the Emily Wilding Davison Building, serving Starbucks and a wide range of grab and go snacks, healthy sandwiches and salads.

Open 9am-4pm

The Hub

Pop into The Hub, in the south of campus, for brunch.

Open 11.30am-2.30pm

Union shop

You can buy a range of sandwiches, sushi, salads and snacks at the shop. There are plenty of places to relax and eat with picnic benches dotted around the campus, including outside the Davison Building, where you'll have a view of the magnificent Founder's Building.

Open 8am-11pm

OPEN DAY

Other things to see

Societies

Meet our student societies and get a taste of some of the things you can get involved with outside your studies at Royal Holloway with our fair at the Students' Union.

Advice zone

Our Advice zone is in the Davison Building, where you can find out more about our Integrated Foundation Year courses and meet all of our friendly support teams, including health and wellbeing, the Careers Service, student finance and the Students' Union.

Information point

Need to know anything else about the day or need to access First Aid? Visit our information point in the foyer of the Davison Building.

Free wifi

is available all day. Use CampusNet, register as a visitor and follow the instructions provided.

Academic department talks locations

1. Accounting and Finance [Moore Building]
2. Biological Sciences [Bourne Building]
3. Business and Management [Shilling Building]
4. Classics (including Ancient History, Archaeology and Classical Studies) [Windsor Building]
5. Computer Science [Shilling Building]
6. Criminology and Social Science [Windsor Building]
7. Drama, Theatre and Dance [Caryl Churchill Theatre]
8. Earth Sciences [Queen's Building]
9. Economics [Davison Building]
10. Electronic Engineering [Shilling Building]
11. English and Creative Writing [Windsor Building]
12. Geography [Queen's Building]
13. Health Studies [Windsor Building]
14. History [Boilerhouse]
15. Languages, Literatures and Culture (including Comparative Literature and Culture, and Liberal Arts) [Windsor Building]
16. Law [Windsor Building]
17. Mathematics [Shilling Building]
18. Media Arts [Boilerhouse]
19. Music [Founder's Building]
20. Physics [Horton Building]
21. Politics, International Relations and Philosophy [Founder's Building]
22. Psychology [Shilling Building]

Check out what's happening

You can find an online programme of all today's activity, including talks, tours and taster sessions, by following the link below.

[royalholloway.ac.uk/
open-day-programme](http://royalholloway.ac.uk/open-day-programme)

Tell us what you think

Don't forget to scan the QR code below to leave your feedback after your visit. You could win a £20 Amazon voucher.

Drop by Founder's Square to see North Surrey's local radio station, Insanity, broadcasting live! Run by Royal Holloway students, this is one of the many creative societies available at the University.