Section 1 – degree programme structure

Awarding institution	Royal Holloway University of London
Accreditation(s) (where applicable)	Solicitors Regulation Authority /Bar Standards Board
Standard length of degree	Two years

In order to satisfy the requirements of the Solicitors Regulation Authority / Bar Standards Board to obtain a Qualifying Law Degree, you will need to meet certain conditions. In the case of LL.B Law this means that you must take and pass all the mandatory course units listed below.

The following table summarises the compulsory modules, which Royal Holloway refers to as mandatory course units, offered on this degree programme each year. The course titles, and methods of teaching and assessment are provided for indicative purposes only and are subject to change in line with the College’s validation process:

Year 1
Course Unit Name	Methods of teaching		Methods of assessment			Credits
	Contact hours	Self-study hours	Written exam	Practical	Coursework
LL2501 Public Law (Constitutional, Administrative & Human Rights)	59	241	70%	0%	30%	30
LL2502 Law of Contract	59	241	70%	10%	20%	30
LL2503 Criminal Law	59	241	70%	0%	30%	30
LL2001 Land Law	59	241	70%	0%	30%	30
The English Legal System*	6				100%	0
Year 2
Course Unit Name	Methods of teaching		Methods of assessment			Credits

LL3502 Law of Torts	59	241	70%	0%	30%	30

In addition to these mandatory course units, there will be a number of optional course units available during the course of your degree. Students will be required to take 1 of these 30 credit optional units. The following table lists a selection of optional course units that are likely to be available. Please note that although the College will keep changes to a minimum, new units may be offered or existing units may be withdrawn, for example, in response to a change in staff. You will be informed if any significant changes need to be made.

* Students will have 3 x 2 hour lectures attached to LL2501 Public, LL2502 Contract and LL2503 Criminal in the Induction Week. Students will then be required to attempt an online quiz which covers questions about the English legal system. The quiz will be pass/fail only. Students can have as many attempts as they need to pass. Students have until the end of term 2 in year 1 to complete and pass the quiz.

Year 1	Year 2
	LL3003 Law Dissertation
	LL3004 Company Law
	LL3503 International and Comparative Human Rights Law
	LL3504 Law of Evidence
	LL3505 Public International Law
	LL3506 Family Law

As part of your degree programme you may be required to complete a course to develop your study skills, for example a course in academic writing skills. Courses such as these often do not carry credit but passing the course may be a requirement to progress to the next year of study.

Section 2 – degree programme costs

H/EU tuition fee 2018/19*	£9,250
Overseas tuition fee 2018/19	£16,500
Other essential costs	None

*The fees shown are for the 2017/18 academic year and are for reference purposes only. Current information available (October 2017) means that we expect the tuition fee for UK and EU undergraduates starting their degrees in 2018 to be £9,250. The UK Government has also announced that EU students starting an undergraduate or postgraduate taught degree in 2018/19 will pay the same level of fee as a UK student for the duration of their degree.

 Fees for international students may increase year-on-year in line with the rate of inflation. Royal Holloway's policy is that any increases in fees will not exceed 5% for continuing students. There is a different tuition fee for a year spent abroad or working in industry. For further information on tuition fees please see Royal Holloway's Terms & Conditions.

These estimated costs relate to studying this particular degree programme at Royal Holloway. General costs such as accommodation, food, books and other learning materials and printing etc., have not been included, but further information is available on our website.

Section 3 – useful vocabulary

We understand some of the terminology used in this document may be new to you, and may differ from that used by other universities. To help with this, we have provided a brief description for some of the most important terminology:

Degree programme – Also referred to as 'degree course' or simply 'course', these terms refer to the qualification you will be awarded upon successful completion of your studies.

Course unit – Also referred to as 'module', this refers to the individual units you will study each year to complete your degree programme. Undergraduate degrees at Royal Holloway comprise four full units, or a combination of full and half units, to the value of 120 credits per year. Mandatory course units must be taken by every student on the relevant degree programme. Some of these mandatory course units must be passed for progression or a particular degree title. On some degree programmes a certain number of optional course units must be passed for a particular degree title.

H/EU – Different categories of students pay different levels of tuition fees. H/EU stands for students with Home or European Union fee status.

Overseas – Non-EU students are liable to pay the overseas rate of tuition fees, and are sometimes also referred to as international students.
